OUTLOOK IS MUCH BRIGHTER

Financial Events During the Week Have More Significance Than for Some Time Past-Ease in Money Is a Feature of Situation-Foundation Being Laid for Improved Trade.

New York, Jan. 31,-Although financial events last week were not of great number, they were still somewhat more numerous and important than they have been in any week for a considerable time, and they served to lift the stock market out of that rut of duliness in which it has traveled in the last two months. .The news comprised chiefly the long talked of entrance of Mr. Harriman into the New York Central board, the announcement of the purchase of the control of the Chesapeake and Ohio by Mr. Hawley, the conclusion in Europe of the Russian loan, and the publication of a number of routine monthly statements of railway earnings. BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD. that they feel bound to protect them. taking has passed off satisfactorily, there
